CLOSING SCENES AT SPRINGFIELD.

Cordial Reception of the Ky. Delegation

Service at Oak Ridge Cemetery.

FAREWELL FATHER,

Friend and Guardian.

[Special Correspondence of the Union Press.] SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Friday, May 5, 1865. EDS. PRESS: The solemn scene is ended. The grandest and most awe-inspiring funeral pageant ever seen upon this broad earth was yesterday brought to a close by depositing in the tomb all that remained on earth of Abraham Lincoln, there to await the final resurrection of the just! Having fulfilled his great mission on earth, he has been called to his final reward on high, leaving a nation in tears! Noblest and truest of men, thou great Preserver of myself only to a general description of the progress of the Kentucky delegation and of e final scenes in the great pageant.

It is well to say here, that, on the entire route, the delegation, consisting of Govern-or Bramlette, staff, and suite, and Major General Palmer and staff, have been met with unbounded cordiality and hospitality. our worthy Governor, particularly, has been the cynosure of thousands of eyes, and was one of the chief objects of interest to the people of Indiana and Illinois. The members of the delegation are under many obligations to the citizens of Springfield, who cannot wide their doors and were opened wide their doors and were most generous in their hospitality.

The citizens of Indianapolis and the au thorities of the State of Indiana made extensive preparations for the solemnities The city was tastefully and almost universally draped in mourning. Handsome arches were built in the streets, the State arches were built in the streets, the State House was magnificent in its decorations, and all that a loyal people could do was done to show their respect for the memory of the great man whose memory was so deeply enshrined in their hearts. At seven o'clock on Sunday morning the funeral train arrived, and with it rain began to fall, which continued with little intermission during the entire day. As seon as the remains were deposited in the State House, the people were admitted to take a last look at the face of their fallen chief. Among the face of their failer chief. Among them are thousands of Sunday school children, whose young hearts were deeply impressed by the solemn scene. Surely they can never forget it, but will cherish it in their memories to the latest day of their

At 12 o'clock it was announced that the grand procession must be omitted alto-gether, on account of the unpropitious weather. This was a source of the greatest disappointment to all, and strangers from all quarters of the country sympathized with the people in Indianapolis in their re-grets, that after all their pains-taking, the most brilliant part of the programme must be left out.

The decorations in the State House were of the most elaborate and tasteful character. The remains were deposited under the great dome, which was hung with black alpacea, forming a magnificent can-opy and studded with stars of gold. Suopy and studded with stars of gold. Superb chandeliers lighted up the mournful scene, and brought vividly to mind that superb view, the Star Chamber in the Mammoth Cave. The illusion was rendered the more perfect by the strains of a silver band, concealed behind the arras. At the hour of 11 o'clock, P. M., when the coffin was about to be closed, the band played that sublimest of all old familiar music, "Old Hundred." As the echoes reverberated through the great dome, and finally rated through the great dome, and finally died away in the distance, the effect was most thrilling, and many an eye was suffused with tears. That scene and that music made an impression upon the minds and hearts of the vast concourse of people which time will not efface from their mem

The funeral train arrived at Chicago during the forenoon of Monday, and the remains were received at Park Place, under a magnificent arch. Of this beautiful specart I shall not attempt a des tion, I can say no more than that it was

It is useless to attempt to estimate the number of persons who assembled at various points to pay their respects to the memory of their deceased President. If the estimated number at Indianapolis, one hundred thousand, be correct, there must have been at Chicago a quarter of a million, and at Springfield one hundred thousand. These figures are doubtless exaggerated, but certain it is that no such a vast eutpouring of the people has been known in the history of any nation now upon the earth.

The cortege arrived at Springfield on the morning of Wednesday, and the remains were taken to the hall of the House of Representatives in the State House, where the people were permitted to take their last sad view of the counterpage of him whom sad view of the countenance of him whom they cherished so deeply in their hearts. Here Mr. Lincoln was well known, and well beloved. Here he had spent the greater portion of his life. Here he had grown to manhood, and among this people are none who do not delight to honor his memnone who have a few political harries. ory, save a few political harpies, who have pursued him with the malignity of ghouls during his life, and are now among the first to shed their hypocritical tears over

As a faithful chronicler of events, in this As a faithful chronicler of events, in this connection I cannot forbear, in justice to the people of Springfield, of the State of Illinois, and of the whole country, as I believe, to allude to a circumstance which cast a damper upon their feeling and thwarted their wishes. I will not trust myself to record the impressions left upon mymind while listening to their conversation. To say that they were disappointed, and that the most cherished object of their desires was disregarded, is to state the fact in that the most cherished object of their desires was disregarded, is to state the fact in the mildest terms.

The citizens of Springfield, with a noble liberality, had purchased for $50,000 a beautiful lot, containing about six acres, covering an entire block, and located but a short distance from the heart of the city, and in full view of the St. Louis, Alton and Chicago railroad. The design was to deposit Mr. go railroad. The design was to deposit Mr Lincoln's remains temporarily in a hand-some vault prepared for the purpose, and at some future time to transfer them to a beautiful and commanding spot in the cen-ter of the lot, now covered by a hardsome dwelling, and there to erect to his memory a monument worthy of him and worthy of the people of the whole country. All these noble schemes, so creditable to the people of Springfield, and so dearly cherished by them were suddenly and summarily over-thrown.

thrown. On Saturday afternoon a dispatch was received from Hon, Secretary Stanton, in which he stated that it was the peremptory desire of Mrs. Lincoln that her husband's desire of Mrs. Lincoln that her husband's remains should be deposited in Oak Ridge Cemetery, and in no other place. As a matter of course, this decision could not be disregarded, however distasteful it might be to the feelings and wishes of the people. What was the effect, I shall not attempt to describe. There was in the minds of all a feeling of great disappointment, mindled feeling of great disappointment, mingled with another sensation which may be im-

Oak Ridge Cemetery is a lovely spot, admirably suited for the purposes to which it has been consecrated, but it is located about two miles from the city, and accessible only by a dirt road. Those who know what the roads over the Western prairies are need not be told how disagreeable they are during a large portion of the year. It is probable that not one in ten thousand of all the strangers who shall become all the strangers who shall hereafter pass through Springfield will ever have the opportunity of visiting the last resting place of Abraham Lincoln. On Thursday, the 4th inst., at about 11 o'clock, the vast procession fell into line and followed the remains to Oak Ridge Cemetery, where the last sad words were said, the last mournful requiem was sung, and the mortal body of our murdered Presilent was deposited in the tomb. The dirges were performed by a choir of about three hundred voices, supported by an excellent silver band. As the procession approached the vault the ear was greeted with the mournful tones of that grand old anthem:

Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb, Take this new treasure to thy trust, And gave these sacred relies room To slumoer in the silent dust.

A most impressive prayer was offered by Rev. Albert Hate, of Springfield, after which the choir sang the following dirge:

Hearts are bowed and strong men ' For our loved, our noble leader; Sleepe his last his draumless sleep— Gone forever, gone forever, Fallen by a traitor's band; Tho' preserv'd his dearest treasure, Our redeem'd beloved land.

Thro' our night of bloody struggle
Ever dauntiess, firm and true,
Brawely, gently forth he led us,
Till the morn burst on our view—
Till he saw the day of triumph,
Saw the field our heroes won;
Then his honor'd life was ended,
Then his playious work was done

Then his honor'd life was chace, Then his glorious work was done. Rest in peace. When from mountain, hill and valley;
To their homes our brave boys come,
Wh-n with welcome notes we greet ther
Song and cheer, and pealing drum;
When we miss our lov'd ones failen,
When to weep we turn aside;
Then for him our tears shall mingle,
He has suffered—he has died.
Rest in peace.

Honor'd leader, long and fendly

Honor'd leader, long and fondly Shall thy mem'ry cherished be; Hearts shall bless thee for their freedom, Hearts unborn shall sigh for thee; He who gave the might and wisdom, Gave the spirit sweet release; F-rewell father, friend and guardian, Rest forever, rest in peace. This was followed by the reading of a portion of Scripture by Rev. Mr. Miner of Springfield, and of President Lincoln's last naugural address by Rev. Mr. Hubbard, of Springfield. Another dirge was then burg, after which Bishop Simpson of Philadelphia delivered an eloquent address. which was listened to with great interest by the vast audience.

The ceremonies were closed by a few brief remarks, and a short burial service by Rev. Dr. Gurley, and the following fu-neral hymn, composed by him for the oc-

Thy name shall live while time endures, And men shall say of thee, "He saved his country from its focs, And bade the slave be free."

These deeds shall be thy monument, Better than brass or stone; They leave thy fame in glory's light, Unrivall'd and alone.

This consecrated spot shall be To Freedom ever dear; And Freedom's sons of every race Shall weep and worship here. O Godl before whom we, in tears, Our fallen chief deplore; Grant that the cause, for which he died, May live forevermore. DOXOLOGY.

To Father, Son and Hely Ghost, The God whom we adore, Be glory as it was, is now, And shall be evermore. The solemn services were closed by a benediction by Dr. Gurley, after which the pro-cession returned to the city and was dis-

Thus has ended the most mournful and mpressive funeral ceremonies ever wited by mortal man. The solemn scene of the last three weeks can never be effaced from the memories of the nundreds of thousands who have seen the face of the dead President, from Washington to Springfield, nor of the millions to whom the sad privilege was accorded. May God grant that our country may be spared a repetition of such an event, and that peace may soon prevail throughout all our borders.

Our delegation were left behind at Indianapolis and did not arrive at Chicago until about daybreak on the morning of Tuesday. We therefore saw nothing of the vast procession which accompanied the remains to the Court House, where they laid in state until Tuesday night, when the cortege left for Springfield.

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-Eighth Congress. [Public-No. 83.]

AN ACT extending the time for the completion of certain land grant railroads in the States of Minnesota and Iowa, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the quantity of lands granted to the State of Minnesota, to aid in the construction of certain railroads in said State, as indicated in the railroads in said State, as indicated in the first section of an [act] entitled "an act making a grant of land to the Territory of Minnesota, in alternate sections, to aid in the construction of certain railroads in said Territory, and granting public lands, in alternate sections, to the State of Alabama, to aid in the construction of certain railroads in that State," approved March third, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, shall be increased to ten sections per mile for each increased to ten sections per mile for each of said railroads and branches, subject to any and all limitations contained in said act and subsequent acts and as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the first provise in the first section of the act aforesaid shall be amended so as to read as follows, to-wit: Provided, That the land to be so located shall in no case be further than twenty miles from the lines of said roads and branches, to aid in the construction of each of which said grant is made; and said lands granted shall, in all cases, be indicated by the Secretary of the Interior.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That any and all lands heretofore reserved to the United States by any act of Congress, or in Onted States by any act of Congress, or in any other manner by competent authority, for the purpose of aiding in any object of internal improvement or other purpose whatever, be, and the same are hereby, reserved and excepted from the operations of this act, except so far as may be found ne-cessary to locate the route of said road through such reserved land, in which case the right of way shall be granted, subject to the approval of the President of the United States: Provided, further, That any lands which have been granted to the Territory or State of Minnesota for the purpose of aiding in the construction of any railroad, which lands may be located within the limits of this extension of said grant or grants, shall be deducted from the full quantity of lands hereby granted, and that any lands which may have been so granted shall be strictly applied in accordance with the terms and conditions of said act, unless subsequently modified by law.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the sections and parts of sections of land, the sections and parts of sections of land, which by said acts and this grant shall remain to the United States, within ten miles on each side of said roads and branches, shall not be sold for less than double the minimum price of public lands when sold, nor shall any of said lands become subject to sale at private entry until the same shall have been first offered at public sale to the highest hidder at or above the minimum highest bidder at or above the minimum price as aforesaid: Provided, That actually bonafide settlers under the pre-emption laws of the United States may, after the proof of settlement improvement and oc-cupation, as now provided by law, purchase the same at the increased minimum price: And, provided, also, That settlers under the provisions of the homestead law, who comply with the terms and requirements of said act, shall be entitled to patents for an amount not exceeding eighty acres each, anything in this act to the contrary not with-

The seat in the House of Commons, ocupied by Richard Cobden from 1859, until his death, will be occupied during the short remainder of the present Parliament by a man who inherits his political opinions, if not his ability. 500 Members of Parliament Dispensed

A strong effort will be made to supply the place of Mr. Cobden in Parliament, by electing John Stuart Mill, the highest authority in English political economy. Mill is a pupil of Bentham. He is about sixty years old, and is the mallet with which every liberal Englishman knocks you down, it you presume to differ with him on any subject whatever. John Stuart Mill says so-and-so, or a quotation from any of his various writings is supposed to be an end of argument. If he is elected from Westminstor, there must be some ed from Westminster, there must be some arrangement made by which he can speak last, or there will be an end of all debates in Parliament, and no more volumes of

When I say speak fast, I mean that he should not speak until all the others have had their say, for no one will venture to oppose so great an authority, and to add anything on the same side would be superfluous. For my part, 1 don't see the least use of the other five hundred and ninety odd members. With Mr. Mill in Parliament, they may as easily be dispensed with as al r books by those who accept the Koran An infallible statesman does not need advice, and should not be bothered with opposition.-[Cor. Twenty-two States, including Louisiana Tennessee and Arkansas, have now, through their Legislatures, ratified the Constitutional Amendment abolishing Slavery. There is no doubt but that New Hampshire, Iowa, Oregon, and California will follow their example in due season. The assent of but one more member of the Union will then be required to make the Amendment the law of the land, provided Louisiana, Tennessee and Arkansas are recognized as organized States. Some ex-Slave State will, in that case, have the honor of giving the casting vote for Freedom.

News of the Day.

the news of the assassination of President Lincoln produced a most profound feeling of grief, indignation and horror in England. Our dispatches this morning furnish some further news by the Hibernia. The London Times says nothing can be remembered in political history that has ever drawn forth a more unanimous feel-ing than the news of Mr. Lincoln's assassiing than the news of Mr. Lincoln's assassination. It says further, that unjust as it believes it to be, the Confederate cause will not escape the dishonor cast upon it by this wanton murder. Mr. Lincoln seems to have been esteemed abroad for the same qualities which so endered him to the people of his own country. Eulogies appeared in nearly all the London papers. Meetings were being held everywhere to express the sorrow and horror of the people over the deed, and there was everywhere the deepest grief manifested. The Liverpool Post of the 27th ult, had its column rules inverted in token of sorrow.

Arrests of persons charged with being concerned in the assassination conspiracy, or suppose to have information concerning it, continue to be made. Most of these arrests are of persons living in the lower counties of Maryland. Our dispatches report the arrest of Lieuts. W. B. Ruggles and A. R. Bainbridge, returned rebels, and of a Dr. Stewart, to whose house Booth wanted to be taken; who are supposed to know to be taken; who are supposed to know something of the assassination plot.

Gen. Halleck has issued an order that all persons found in Virginia or North Carolina in arms are to be treated as robbers and outlaws. Persons assisting in organiz-

In a letter from R. A. Blatchford to C. A. Seward, published in the New York Times,

Ex-Gov. Aiken has been unconditionally released from arrest by order of the President. It seems there was no just cause for his arrest by the military authorities at Charleston. After that city came into our possession Mr. Aiken promptly avowed his Unionism, and said he had never swerved in his fealty to the national Government.

It is thought Jeff. Davis may have an arrangement with the rebel ram Stonewall, which is reported off the coast of Florida, by which he hopes to make his escape from the country. Davis was at Charlotte on the

SLAVERY IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The 23d army corps, as has been announced, is to remain in North Carolina, to be distributed through the State for garrison duty. Major General Schofield is in the State, virtually Military Governor. The dispatches yesterday morning announced that General Schofield had issued the colored race. North Carolina is not one of the States excepted in the proclamation, and therefore by the effect of that immortal slavery no longer legally exists in that dicates that the proclamation of freedom received instructions from Washington as to the policy to be pursued, as his conservative antecedents give little reason to believe that the order was not inspired by a higher authority. The abolition of slavery, therefore, in the unexcepted States and portions tion of the Constitutional Amendment by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the States. The immediate adoption of the amendment would be only a coup de grace to the moribund institution.

BORDER WARFARE.

By a private letter received by a gentleman in this city from his son, who is stationed with his company at Fort Bascom, New Mexico, we understand that a treaty has been made between the Texans and the Kiowa and Camanche Indians, and that the joint forces of these parties are now threatening the National posts on the borders of New Mexico. If reinforcements are not speedily sent to that quarter, we may expect to hear of bloody results, and perhaps at wednesday Afternoon, Grand Matinee for the banean exterminating warfare on the part of the Texan Confederates and their savage allies. The news was brought to the New Mexican forts by escaped Mexican prison-

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL AND RICH-MOND WHIG.

Our compositor inexplicably affixed the date of May 4th to the line in yesterday's Press, crediting to the Richmond Whig "A True View of the War," &c. As Richnond was in United States possession and the Whig published in the Union interest on the "4th of May," and any thing appearing in it of that date cannot be pronounce as being in the clear interest of the rebellion, and, therefore, any argument based on that assumption is without point and valueless. No other error of a compositor could have produced just this effect, viz: To refute or nullify the whole argument of the article. As the Journal to which the Whig's article was transferred did not give the date of the Whig's article, and as the whole language of the Whig's article is such as might have been the language of any rebel arguing for independence on the ground that the two sections could never harmonize while under one government, but might get along very well as two governments, it was fair to infer that that article (the Richmond Whig's) was written while Richmond | First National Bank of Louisville was the rebel capital, and the "Richmond Whig" a rebel paper, and hence it was at least injudicious for the Journal to repro duce the article without comment.

Now the common record says Lee's surrender was made to Lieutenant General Grant, and we have never until now known that "an old negro woman," "the sole," or as Artemus Ward would say, the promiscuous "occupant of a marble mansion," and outlaws. Persons assisting in organizing guerrilla bands, or in any way abetting organized outlawry, will be arrested and tried by Military Commission, and if found guilty suffer the penalty of death. Gen. Halleck in this order also defines the status of the freedmen. They are to be ficated to choose for whom they will work, and agree upon the compensation for their own labor.

Let minute the death of a marble mansion, of Lee's surrender." As that is what he intended to say, we cannot see why he should have been so correless as to make the huge blunder that For minors not cared for by parents, the apprentice system will be introduced. careless as to make the huge blunder that distigures his letter. disfigures his letter.

Seward, published in the New York Times, the writer says Payne, who attempted to assassinate Secretary Seward, has made a full confession. Payne says the plan was a failure because not fully carried out.

Ex. Gov. "If we thought proper to follow the bad example of certain manufacturers, we might say that ours is "THE YERY our opinion, would be nothing less than the simple truth, we prefer that the commendations of our instruments shall come from those who are using them, and from others competent to judge of their meits.

We claim for our New Scale Square Piano, with Overstrung Bass, that it is fully equal in power and purity of tone to any Square Instrument made or sold in the United

Call of Union Central Committee

TG THE

Ohio Soldiers

Each regiment in the field will have one vote, each battalion one vote, and each independent battery one-half vote. Any regiment in the field having seven hundred and fifty men, will have two votes." An alternate will be elected for each delegate.

That sufficient time may be had to procure leave of ab-sence for delegates to attend the Convention, it is recom-mended to hold elections in the several (biolic regiments, battalions and independent batteries in the Army on the cumberland, on or as soon thereafter as practicable. The commanding officers of each regiment, battain or independent battery, or the judges of the elections, are requested to immediately after their election the names of the delegates and their alternates. To the Union Central Committee of the Army of the Cumberland, at Chattanooga, Tenn., who will make application for leaves of absence for all the delegates or alternates so reported.

It is recommended that the delegates from this army starts os as to reach Columbus three days before the meeting of the Convention, and the undersigned respectfully suggest to the Ohio organizations everywhere, that in our opinion it is of great importance to our interest as citizen soldiers that a full representation go to Columbus from all the Ohio troops. We do not offer our plan of organization as conclusive upon the subject, but it has benational accountable and the various departments and commands in the whole country, and after a full and free interchange of opinions and wishes, and we carnestly ask our brother in arms, in all the armies, to adept some plan to secure a full representation in the Convention, and we cordially invite the delegates to meet the delegates from this army at Columbus to consult with them and to co-operate with the Convention.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, No. 291
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, No. 291
WHEREAS, an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States, within and for the District of Kentucky, on the second day of May, A. D. 1865, by Joshus Tevis, Esquire, Attorney for the United States for the District of Kentucky, who prosecutes herein, in behalf of the United States of America, as of Willard Davis, Collector Internal Revenue, 5th Collecting District of Kentucky, against 10 barrels of Whisky, in the hands of Thomas O. Day, 4 barrels in the hands of Wm. O. May, 3 barrels in the hands of J. W. Cannon, 1 barrel in the hands of Philip Grantby, alleging in substance that said goods and articles were seized on land in the District of Kentucky on the 23d day of March A. D., 1865, as for eifed to the United States; that said whisky was and is subject to duty imposed by law, and the same was found in the possession of the ab-ve name persons, for the purpose of being sold by said persons in fraud of the internal revenue laws and with design to evade the payment of duties imposed by law and in violation of the Act of Congress in such cases made and provided. And that said articles became thereby forfeited to the use of the United States of America, and praying process against the same, that the same may be condemned as forfeited as aforesaid.

Now, therefore, in pursance of the monition under the seal of said Court to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming said articles or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court, to be held at the city of Louisville, in and for said District, on the first day of its next June term, the fifth day of June, A. D., 1865, then and there to interpose their claims and to make their allegations in that behalf.

Collection of Claims.—A great many of our readers will thank us for directing their attention to the conspicuous advertisement of W. M. Tileston, Washington City. To claim agents, especially, Mr. Tileston's four years familiarity with the routine of the various departments at the national capital, and other advantages of no ordinary character, should induce the no ordinary character, should induce the opening of a correspondence at once. Delays in auditing or adjusting accounts, from oversight in making up; omission of material matter; non-compliance with strict forms; miscarriage of application; claims mislaid after filing; shelving of claim for back stamp, and the thousand and one items of objection liable to arise in the desertment of the department, vitiating a claim, are speedily rectified by Mr. Tileston.

New Music.—We are indebted to D. P. Faulds for a copy of "O'er the Shorn Fields," ballad by Max Beyer, a beautiful piece. He has also laid upon our table Bob Barkis' (if he is willin) most capital comic song—"I vants to go home." The title page presents a very striking caricature of Louis Napoleon trying to soothe the blubbering boy, Max Max, who "vants to go home, vare de saur kraut grows, and de lager bier flows, &c."—but he wants to go more especially because "vat big chap vat lives next to me has vipped all his foes, and next he vill pitch into me." That's so Max, so you had better travel.

We learn that the "Pioneer Association" of Cincinnati, numbering 151 persons, are to make an excursion to this city on the mail boat United States, They leave Cincinnati this morning, the invited guests of the steamer, and will be in our city tomorrow morning. It has been suggested that a committee of the Board of Trade meet others of our citizens at the Mayor's office this morning at 8 o'clock, to give the "Pioneers" a reception and welcome.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.-James Pierson, of the Veteran Reserve Corps, was ar-rested in Jeffersonville yesterday for mur-der. The murder was committed under the following circumstances: It seems that the soldiers in the barracks were engaged in a scuffle over some rations, when Pier son spoke to Howard and threatened to put him in guard-house. An altercatisn ensued, when Pierson shot Howard, killing him

The question is decided. Even an nmarried woman may "wear the breeches with impunity. The policeman who arrest-ed Miss Harman in New York for sporting "male continuations," has been dismisse the force, the Chief deciding that a woma has as much right to wear a pair of pants as an overcoat, which every woman wears

The only case on trial in the Crim. inal Court yesterday was that of Buck Newton, charged with malicious shooting. The evidence on both sides was heard, and ROBBERY.-Officers Gillmore and Hall arrested two young men last evening for robbing the grocery of Mr. Reidman, on Preston street, between Chestnut and Gray streets. They were detected for the Mr. Reidman, who seeled for the act by Mrs. Reidman, who called for assistance. A man came to the rescue, but was knocked down by the robbers. The case will be investigated in the Police Court this morning.

MR. TOM CAREY.—Mr. Tom Carey closed his connection with the Louisville Theater yesterday. Mr. Carey, as manager and freasurer, has been for a long time connected with this popular place of amusement, and has contributed not a little to its successful management. Many of the patrons of the Louisville will regret the retirement

A number of unemployed Generals will be mustered out of the service in a week or two, if they do not take the hint and resign. It is intended to retain only about 15 Major Generals, 60 Brigadiers, and 150 Colonels. From this we may gather some idea of how large a standing army is contemplated.

We can excuse the superstitious eagerness sometimes exhibited by ignorant persons to possess themselves of a bit of rope with which a man has been hanged, but why an intelligent and loyal lady or gentleman should consider the portrait of the assassin of our President an appropri-ate center-table ornament, is beyond comprehension.

New Music,-"Encore une fois," Polka, Mazourka caracteristique, composee par Eug. A. Bonner. "In my Dear Happy Home," song; words by R. W. Taylor, music by Eug. A. Bonner. Both the above published by D. P. Faulds, 223 Main street.

We would call the attention of our readers to the auction sale of real estate by the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad Company. The property is very desirable, and good investments can be made. The sale will take place to-morrow.

The Cincinnati and Louisville Mail Company have in contemplation a pleasure trip for the City Fathers of Cincinnati and Louisville, to take place at an early day on the Mail Company's new and splendid steamer, the United States.

PERSONAL .- Lieut. Col. Clarence J. Prentice has taken the oath of allegiance in Nashville and will return to his home in this city in a few days.

George D. Prentice is in Nashville confined to his bed by sickness. On account of the heavy rains yesterday, the Turners did not have their grand pic-nic at Woodland Garden. We understand that it will certainly take place

The Muller murder has been turned into a tragedy in Germany. The piece is announced as Franz Muller, or the Murder on the London Railway, in three parts and seven tableaux, with songs.

Wm. Thomas alias Theodore White was arrested for stealing money and clothing; continued till Tuesday.

Geo. Harman, drunk; fined $5. HEAVY VERDICT .- For several days past a case of much interest has been on trial in the Circuit Court, now in session in this city. A boy named William Langdon was city. A boy named William Langdon was run over near the depot in this city, by a car on the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroad, and his legs cut off. The father sued the Railroad Company to recover damages—the company, we believe defending on the ground that the boy was by his own act and contrary to the wellknown orders of the officers of the road, in such a position as to be injured. The case was given to the jury on Saturday, and this morning they returned a verdict awarding ten thousand dollars damages to the plaintiff.- New Albany Ledger.

LOUISVILLE THEATER,-Notwithstanding the inclement weather, a large and fashion-able audience greeted Louisville's favorite, Mr. B. McCauley, last night, and we have never seen Richelieu better rendered. Miss Gray's Julia de Mortemar was also a splendid piece of acting. Mr. Holland's de Mauprat was carefully and correctly ren-dered, and the parts sustained by Messrs. Scallan and Krone were excellently well done; in fact the whole play were reader done; in fact the whole play was rendered with a finish that reminded us of the old Mr. Wolfe addressed the jury for the defense. When the court adjourned until this sway, and the Louisville was crowded with te of our city, who could and did an preciate it. Hamlet will be rendered to-night, with McCauley as Hamlet, and Miss Ada Gray as Ophelia. We hope to see the house crowded nightly this week.

> The sudden collapse of the rebellion has thrown a large amount of labor upon the market. If it were not for the high price of every kind of marketing, much improvement would be manifest in the city. As it is, laborers cannot afford to stay in our city. Every article in the domestic market remains at the former price, while labor has fallen at least fifty per cent. How long this suicidal policy of exhorbitant prices will continue we know horbitant prices will continue we know not. In the meantime the interests of the city will suffer.

> GUERRILLA OUTRAGES .- We learn by letter from Hopkinsville that the notorious outlaw Sypert crossed the Cumberland river at Eddyville on the 1st, and drew a river at Eddyville on the 1st, and drew a small body of Federals into ambush, wounding some and taking some prisoners. It is stated that he shot the prisoners in cold blood, and horribly disfigured them by burning their faces with powder. Sypert and his gang were expected in Hopkinsville on Saturday night, but did not make their appearance. Great excitement prevailed in the neighborhood of Hopkinsville, and business was suspended. siness was suspended.

> MAIL ROBBED.—The Glasgow mail, en route for this city, was robbed Saturday near Cave City, by two men who stopped the coach, presenting their pistols at the driver and passengers. They robbed the passengers of their watches and money and also robbed the mail bags and rode off.

REBEL DESERTERS .- Forty-six deserters from the rebel army were received at the Military Prison on Broadway yesterday from Nashville, and furnished transportation to points north of the Ohio, after sub-scribing to the amnesty oath.

ARRESTED FOR RAPE. - Officers Antle and McManon arrested a man named John Murray last night for committing a rape on young girl by the name of Maggie Coslo on Sunday night.

pareliphet Hunter was arrested and placed in the barracks yesterday on the charge of being a guerrilla. He has been operating in Nelson county, Ky.

Strawberries made their appearance in our market yesterday morning. We understand that the yield in this neighborhood will be quite large.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The London Times of the 27th says: This evening it may be expected that the leaders of great parties in the House of Commons will take the opportunity of expressing, in the name of the nation, the horror which is felt at the crime, and of assuring the American people that whatever difference of opinion may exist in this country as to the present war, there is but one feeling of sympathy with them at the loss of an honest and high-minded

London and provincial journals alike describe the intense excitement which the news created, and all unite in warm eulogiums upon Mr. Lincoln, and bitter denun-ciations of the assassination.

Paris and continental journals also contain articles on the subject. The scene on change in Liverpool will not soon be for-The excitement has rarely, if ever been exceeded. Late in the day a request was sent to the Mayor to call a public meeting to express the sorrow and indig-nation of the people. Hundreds signed it and the Mayor issued a proclamation for a meeting at St. George's Hall on the after-noon of the 27th, to be adjourned to the evening of the same day, that the working classes may likewise have an opportunity The flag on the Town Hall and others and

The Liverpool Post, of the 27th, is printed with its columns in mourning.

The Times says that itothing in political history can be remembered that has ever drawn forth as a more unanimous feeling than this news. Personally President Lin coln enjoyed the kind regards of every one in England. The extent to which his influence was estimated in upholding amicable relations between England and the United States has been shown by a fall of unusual severity in all classes of securities. The Times editorially says the news will be received throughout Europe with sorrow as sincere and profound as it ever awoke in the United States. Mr. Lincoln's perfect honesty speedily became apparent and Englishmen learned to respect him. It also says, unjust as we believe it to be the Confederate cause will not escape the dishonor cast upon it by these wanton murders.

The Daily News says that Mr. Lincoln has not fallen in a flash of triumph, for no thought of triumph was in that honest and humble heart. But his task was accomplished, and the battle of his life was won and in all time to come, among all who think of more than rank, the name of Abraham Lincoln will be held in reverence.

The News then continues: We will not, without further and overwhelming proof, lay the charge of this horrible conspiracy to the leaders or abettors of the South. The Star pays a warm tribute to Mr. of peace, in spite of all provocations, to-wards England. It also expresses a con-fidence that the North, even in its hour of just indignation, will bear itself with that nag nanimity and clemency, which thus ar has attended its triumph. The Daily Telegraph says, from vulgar corruption, from factious hatred, from the meanest jealousy and uncharitableness, this great ruler was wholly free; at last came what seemed to be the fruition of his labor, the reward of his patience and cour-

He entered Richmond as a conqueror, but he launched no decree of proscription against the South, for the fight appeared to him to be over, and it was not in his heart to bear malice against a beaten foe.

Much uneasiness was evinced in regard to the murder of President Lincoln. France.-Letters of condolence from the Emperor or Prince Napoleon to the family of Mr. Lincoln, are published.

From Richmond -- Order by Gen. Halleck --Guerrillas to be Treated as Outlaws NEW YORK, May 8. - The Richmond Whig of the 6th contains an order from Gen. Halleck, that after the 20th all persons found in arms against the United States in Virginia and North Carolina will be treated as robbers and outlaws. Persons assisting in organizing guerrilla bands and continuing hostilities against the United States, will be tried by Military Commission, and be subject to death. Military officers are to preserve order, and reconcile differences between freedyng and their meature. The between freedmen and their masters. The freedmen are obliged to work, but may select their own employers. For minors not cared for by parents, the apprentice system is to be introduced.

Ex-Gov. Aiken Released -- Seizure on Account of Fraudulent Sale. Washington, May 8.—The President has ordered that Ex-Gov. Aiken shall no longer be considered under arrest. It is understood there was just cause for his arrest by the military authorities at Charleston.

The Confession of Payne, the Assassin. NEW YORK, May 8.—The Post publishes letter from R. A. Blatchford to C. A. Seward, in which the writer says, after referring ard, in which the writer says, after reterring to the improved condition of the Secretary and his son, Payne, the assassin, has fully confessed his crime, and all the details res-pecting it, and the difficulties he encount-ered. He says all the plans of that Friday night not being carried out was the greatest failure that ever was.

Trial of the Conspirators.

New York, May 8.—The Commercial's Washington special says it is reliably reported that the commission for the trial of the conspirators engaged in the assassination will commence to-day. The Department, however, affects a mystery on the subject, and no information can be obtained by the press by the press.

Kentucky had had many occasions to attest the friendship of Indiana during the dark hours, when she was presided over by a traitor Governor—and had never failed to receive promptly all the aid she asked. He had stood shoulder to shoulder with Indiana soldiers in the field. Both were actuated by the same spirit of patriotism and kindred memories, their blood had mingled together on the field of battle, and if his affection for the people of Indiana was greater than for those of any other part of the country, it was because he felt as if they owed Indiana a debt of gratitude. The task now before the Government at Washington is one of the greatest difficulty that ever fell to a great people. It is no longer to conquer, to wear out, and to over whelm, but to win, to unite and to restore. The worst part of the difficulty consists in the national deficits, which themselves caused the rupture which war was too certain to aggravate, and which triumph is tain to aggravate, and which triumph is not apt at once to remove. We know not where to look for that happy mixture of firmness, sagacity, tenderness and knowledge of mankind which is to heal the terrical of this way and restore love bewounds of this war, and restore love between men, who have suffered and inflicted much frightful injuries; our only hope is that the occasion will call into prominence men as well qualified for the work of peace as names unknown to fame have become glorious in this war. Since warriors have emerged, as it were from soil, so also a new race of wise and pacific statesmen may show themselves.

The President is the very last man who ught to indulge either in triumph or a wish for revenge. As one father of a common country he must indeed be unworthy of his position if he does not wish to see all one again. The Union cannot be restored without complete reconciliation, and reconciliation must be founded on an oblivion of alleged offenses and perfect equality as to the leged offenses and perfect equality as to the future. No citizen of the Union will take a sincere and cordial part in the solemn act of naturalizing foreigners and reconcilia-tion, unless he sees before him a future that may retrieve the past so far as in the

The North may find it has to make a sacrifice even now in the hour of triumph in order to soothe animosities and repair injuries. It had better do it now in a spirit cession than have to do it when the

of concession than have to do it when the grace of concession is gone.

The Daily News says the most honored and trusted of the Confederate leaders, who was appointed commander-in-chief of the whole armies of the Confederacy expressly that he might retrieve its fortunes and establish its independence, has laid down his, arms. He fought gallantly while by fighting he could hope to achieve any practical result. To hold the capital, to save the army, or maintain the existence of the State when satisfied none of these objects could be served by prolonged resistance, he spared the useless effusion of blood in surrendering. He has adopted a course which indicates his opinion of the renewal of the whole conflict, not merely of the army under his immediate command, but the general issues.

The strongest feelings of sympathy and indignation is universally expressed. There was but one voice throughout the country, RIVER was but one voice throughout the country, and those who sympathize with the cause of the South evinced quite as much indignation as the warmest friends of the North. MATTERS.

We, the undersigned members of the House of Commons, have learned with the deepest regret and horror that the President of the United States has bee deprived of life by an act of violence, and we desire to express our sympathy On the falls last evening there were seven on the falls last evening there were seven feet water in the pass, down the Indian chute. The falls, however, are navigable for ascending boats, and the Morning Star, from Henderson, ascended the middle chute and landed at the city wharf. The river at Cincinnati had risen five feet since Saturday, and at Pittsburg Sunday the river was rising, with nine feet water in the channel, and good prospects of another coal boat tide.

The Cumberland, at Nashville, yesterday was rising, with six feet water on the shoals, and heavy rains the night previous.

Several boats came in from Nashville yesterday, and the Palestine, Capt. Crider, is due this morning, with 200 hogsheads of tobacco for this port. That is the biggest load of the season.

The Liberty No. 2, as we learn by a dispatch from Evansville, will be in port this morning. She is the regular Wednesday packet for Memphis, and will start from the city wharf.

The Minneola, from Pittsburg, in attempting to land at the city wharf on Sunday evening got out on the reef of rocks at the head of the falls, where she stuck hard aground until yesterday about noon. She was lightened off by the Edinburg, and tug boat Walker Morris.

About five o'clock yesterday morning eighten or twenty of the fleet of coal boats.

eighteen or twenty of the fleet of coal boats moored at the foot of Sand Isand, oppo-site Portland, below the falls, were torn loose and floated off in a mass down the river. The high winds and rising river had chafed the lines of the boats until they parted, and the heavy mass, about half a million bushels of coal, was at the mercy of the tide. Fortunately one of the New Albany ferryboats and two tugboats were started in pursuit of the runaway coal, and succeeded in arresting its progress within a few miles of New Albany, and landed the entire fleet in safety and without serious damage. The J. R. Hoyle is the Green river packet this evening. She starts from the city wharf in charge of Capt. Greer, an experienced boatman in the trade, with R. M. Johnson in the clerk's office. She takes Johnson in the clerk's office. She takes freight and passengers to Bowling Green and all way points. We hope shippers and passengers will encourage the trade by giving this packet their business.

The magnificent packet Fashion is expected at the city wharf this morning to load for New Orleans. She is new and staunch, with unsurpassed passenger accommodations, and in charge of accomplished officers, Captain Power in command, with W. H. Cropper in the clerk's NEW YORK, May 8.—The following is Gen. Johnston's farewell order:
HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF TENNESSEE,
NEAR GREENSBORO, May 2.—General Orders No. 22.—Commanders, in terminating our official relations I earnestly exhort you plished officers, Captain Power in command, with W. H. Cropper in the clerk's office. The Fashion is permanently placed in the Louisville and New Orleans trade, and is one of the fastest and best boats we have ever had in the line. Passengers are assured of the choicest fare, as the steward is John Jackson, one of the very best on the river, and famous in days of yore as the steward of the Atlantic, in the Louis-ville and New Orleans trade.

You will return to your homes with the admiration of our people, won by the courage and noble devotion you have displayed in this long war. I shall always remember with pride the loyal support and generous confidence you have given me. I now port with Salt.—A fleet of nine barges, with 11,000 bushels of salt was received yesterday from the salines of the Ohio River Salt Company. The Gen. Lytle, Capt. OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE UNION PRESS, MONDAY EVENING. May 8, 1865. The market to-day has been dull and manimate in ne ly all departments, consequent in part to the extreme in-clement weather. It rained heavily nearly all day, ma-king out-door transactions almost imposs ible. The receipts of produce are increasing, and prices are some-what easier, and we notice heavy receipts of this river salt from Pomeroy, the most of which will be reshipped further South. The river is about at a stand at this point, though a further rise may be expected from the

The money market was very quict to-day in all respects, with but few transactions over the counter, and very few pressing demands for loans. The late foreign news is looked upon favorably as regards financial affairs, and the permanent stability of Government stocks and securities. Gold, as we learn by the dispatches to the Merchants' Exchange, opened at 143%, and declined, at 3 P. M., to 139% over currency. The brokers quote as follows, the rates being almost wholly

SYMPTOMS.

The Symtoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Per sons find they have a cold, then they have frequent at-tacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition, the nose many be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterward thick and adhesive

As the disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The se cretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is essened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place. Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a thick or slimy muceus, which has fallen from the head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should kee no time in arresting it. The above are but few of the many Catarrhal symptoms. Write for our pamphlet describing fully all symptoms; is will be sent FREE to any address.
